DEMOCRATS
IN A ROWTHEIR LAND EXPERTS SAYS PARTY WILL REPUDIATE
EVERY DEMOCRAT IN THE LEGISLATURE EXCEPT
FURTADO AND NAWAHINE, ON ACCOUNT OF COURSE
IN SPECIAL SESSION.

Judging by the following communication received by The Star this morning, there is to be a big row in the Democratic camp over the actions of members of the Senate and House in the special session:

"WHERE'S THE DEMOCRATIC ISSUE?"

"Republicans are jubilant over the success of their special session and Governor Frear is naturally pleased at the quick and unanimous adoption of his suggestions, almost unamended. The session will, of course, have considerable effect on the next political campaign, as far as the land issue is concerned. The Democrats, under McCandless' leadership, were prepared to attack the Republicans' position on land matters. But every Democrat in House and Senate voted for the Republican measure just adopted. What are they going to do about it in the campaign?"—Star.

It is very easy to tell what the Democrats are going to do about it. They are going to repudiate the action of every Democrat in the Legislature except Furtado and Nawahine, the only two who stood by the pledges of the Democratic platform on the public land issue. The Democrats all over the Territory are not going to be sidetracked by a few members of the Legislature who made the prohibition issue paramount and evidently went straight back on their platform pledges to get the Cohen Resolution through. A man who can see through a ladder can see through that. The fight is young yet, and no one supposed that the few so-called Democrats in the Legislature could turn the scales against a very large majority of Republicans in both houses. But they were expected to stand by the platform on which they were elected or give some good reasons why they could not. It will be up to them to explain. I really can see no reason why Republicans are jubilant unless it be at the traitorous conduct of the Democrats. In that respect they have reason to be jubilant but for no other reason that is clear to me. The special session has handed out a "gold brick" to the people, so far as its proposed amendments to section seventy-three—relating to land laws—is concerned. Its same old land law with a few more strings on it. As to other amendments proposed the Democratic party never disputed them seriously and agreed as to most of them. The Republicans have put themselves in this position: they have played their last card; they have done their best; they can promise no more. They say in their platform they "are progressive," and now they have progressed. The Democrats won't do a thing to that land law. Not till they get around to it.

Yours truly,
T. J. RYAN.COMMERCIAL NEWS

ARMY BOARD FOR HAWAII

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Complying with telegraphic instructions from the War Department a board of officers consisting of Colonel Walter S. Schuyler, Fifth Cavalry; Captain Joseph C. Castner, quartermaster, and Captain Clarence R. Day, quartermaster, Fifth Cavalry, has been named by Adjutant-General Hale to meet at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, to proceed with the delimitation of the present military occupation and determine what amount the government should pay for a lease of a portion of the Waiānāe Uka military reservation.

Other orders issued are. Leave of absence for two months, to take effect upon completion of duty at the School of Musketry, Presidio of Monterey, for Second Lieutenant Arthur W. Hanson, Fifth Cavalry; Captain Edwin G. Davis, Coast Artillery Corps, relieved from duty as judge advocate of the general courtmartial appointed at the Presidio, San Francisco; First Lieutenant Myron S. Crissy, Coast Artillery Corps, detailed in his stead.

TACOMA, Oct. 11.—Evidence of the increasing trade between this coast and the Hawaiian Islands is given by the fact that neither the American-Hawaiian Steamship company, which have the sister ships Pleiades and Hyades operating in the service, will relinquish the vessels, whose charters recently expired. When the Hyades, operating for the Matson company, was last at this port, it was given out that she had been fixed for at least three more voyages, and now comes the announcement from the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company that the steamer Pleiades has been taken for another year for the Hawaiian Island trade.

The Pleiades recently arrived at San Francisco from the Islands and her charter expired this month. She will now remain in the service for at least another year. As both of these steamship companies are building other steamers for the service, their refusal to relinquish those now chartered is taken as an indication that the venture has been more successful than anticipated. It is believed that the Matson Navigation company will eventually purchase the Hyades for the trade and retain her in the service with the fleet now in operation. This company will next year begin a passenger service from the Sound to the Islands. The new steamer Wilhelm, now finishing on the Atlantic, will be brought around for the trade from San Francisco and one of the big passenger steamers now operating out of San Francisco will be placed in the northern service.

The steamers Hyades and Pleiades formerly operated in the Boston Tow Boat company's fleet from Tacoma to Oriental ports. They were withdrawn two years ago and placed for a season in the Nome trade. The next year, or a year ago, the Matson Navigation company chartered the Hyades and immediately the American-Hawaiian Steamship company took the Pleiades. It was said at the time that the latter company engaged the Pleiades to keep the other company from securing her, but the fact that she has again been chartered would indicate that she was taken in order to care for the increasing business between this coast and the Islands.

Among the later charters is the French bark Neuilly, now at San Francisco, to load wheat for the United Kingdom at Portland or Puget Sound for Kerr, Gifford & Co. She received the union rate.

The French ship Duguay Trouin has been chartered to carry barley from San Francisco to the United Kingdom, with option of wheat from Portland.

THE WORK OF A YALE LEADER

IN OUR CITY.
Last year a work entitled "The Historical Bible" by YProf. Charles Foster of Yale University began to be issued. It at once took rank as the best popular scholarly exposition of the modern view of the bible in the English language. Dr. Kent had been preparing for this by more than 20 years of teaching classes both of students in college and of lay men, workmen etc., outside his University. Some thirty enthusiasts took up volume 1 of the Historical Bible last year under the leadership of Dr. Scudder and liked it so well that tomorrow evening a second class will be organized to continue the work. A very hearty invitation to join the class is extended to everyone who wishes to know what the twentieth century reverent view of the Bible is. The class will meet weekly on Wednesdays at 8:30 p. m. in the parlor of Central Union church. Perfect freedom prevails in this study.
